

How To Change The Domain Registration Details

You can update your address, contact e-mail, phone number, etc. for your domain name registration by logging into it at <http://access.enom.com/>

Each domain registration you have will be set up with its own unique password.

If you do not want your information available publicly on the Internet, consider our Domain Privacy service! See the Domain Privacy tab at the previous link.